Editor's Notes

Jim & Mary Fellure

Dear Brethren,

Praise the Lord for the privilege of serving in a ministry that gets very little criticism. I personally get a little bit of opposition from time to time. It's probably more of a personality clash than anything else, but the printing and distribution of the Scriptures is hard to find fault with.

JAMES NAUDI NATIONAL PREACHER FROM THE KAMEA TRIBE

I had the privilege this past Friday evening of taking missionary John Allen and Brother James Naudi, a national preacher from the Kamea Tribe of the Gulf Province of Papua, New Guinea to the Ryans Steak House for dinner. On Sunday morning I had the unique privilege of praying at the altar with Brother James. Missionary Matt Allen brought Brother James to the states for a visit and to be a testimony of what the mission work in New Guinea has accomplished.

Brother Matt said when they were about two hours into their twenty-five hour flight, that Brother James looked out the air plane window at that vast and beautiful South Pacific Ocean they were flying over and said, "Brother Matt, this is a BIG world." About twenty hours later as they began nearing the end of their flight Brother James said "Brother Matt, we have a BIG God."

There are about 40,000 people in the Kamea tribe that Brother James is from, and none of them have a Bible in their language. In fact, they have no literature at all because their language has never been written. Missionary John Allen is presently doing his deputation in preparation for the translation work among the Kamean tribe. It will be a long hard task, but as Brother James said, we have a BIG God.

If any of our readers would like to contact Brother John Allen you can call him at 502-523-4080.

UPGRADING OF EQUIPMENT

Two years ago when we got the Muller Martini bindery system, the trimmer that does the final trimming of the books before they are boxed for shipping gave us some problems. We checked with the company that services that particular machine and found that it has to be upgraded to a computerized system. The cost for the upgrade is $9,500. Until we can afford this change, we are trimming all of the books on a single blade cutter. Please help us pray in the money to repair this piece of very important equipment.

MISSIONARY ANTONIO ARELLANOS NEEDS A HOUSE

Brother Antonio Arellanos has definitely used his mission support for the ministry. He has started six very successful independent Baptist churches (many times paying the pastor's salary out of his own personal support) and a medical clinic, but he has never owned a home of his own. He has lived in an upstairs apartment for twenty-one years, and his wife Angela (Missionary Sonny Fritzi daughter), has arthritis so bad that it hurts to go up and down the stairs, but I have never one time heard him or his family complain. While I was in Monterrey, Mexico the first week in April, the Lord burdened my heart to raise the money to get this good missionary family into a decent house. The total amount for the house is $30,000. Our home church has already committed for $15,000 leaving me to raise the additional $15,000. Please pray that the Lord will give me enough

STATEMENT OF FAITH

WE ACCEPT the Holy Scriptures contained in the Old and New Testaments as being the verbally inspired Word of God and being perfectly preserved in the King James 1611 Bible. We do not believe it can be corrected or improved upon in any way. It is the final rule of faith and practice.

WE BELIEVE in the triune God, who is eternally in three persons (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit).

WE BELIEVE in the deity of Christ - His virgin birth, His sinless life, His death for the sins of the world, His bodily resurrection, His exaltation at God's right hand, His personal, imminent, and premillennial return.

WE BELIEVE all men are sinners and are guilty before God; in need of a Saviour.

WE BELIEVE that men are born again through repentance and faith in Jesus Christ; that they become the children of God, eternally saved; that the Holy Spirit dwells within every believer to guide and help him in his testimony and service.

WE BELIEVE in the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved in Glory, and the everlasting conscious punishment of the lost in hell. We believe that all believers have a responsibility to get the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ into all the world.

wisdom to raise the money and be a blessing to this good missionary.

Thank you for your support and prayers.

In Christ,
Jim Fellure

Al & Heidi Berg

Dear Friends and Supporters,

While waiting for paper to be delivered we have been doing some pre-press work on the computer. We printed the first run of the Rheina Valara Gomez 2004 edition of the Spanish New Testament last year and have tried to put it out to as many different brethren as possible to get some feedback on it, and the response has been overwhelmingly positive. As was expected though, there were a few typos and a few other minor changes that have been made since then, so all that will need to be laid out again. I just recently finished doing all the layout work for a new Romanian New Testament. The old translation had some gross errors in it, and it was hard for missionaries and preachers to preach from it. Now we need some 38" paper to print that on.

As far as paper goes, we have been searching for several weeks for paper and hoping to print the Romanian New Testament and the RVG Spanish New Testament, but it has been very difficult to find, however we did come up with some 34.5" and 35" paper that we will print some John/Romans on. (We print the John/Romans a slightly smaller size since they are used more for mass distribution on the streets by missionaries and are a little easier to handle that way.) We will be printing in English (it has been a long time since we have done any John/Romans in English), Telegu (a language used in India), and Spanish. Please pray that we can get these out quickly and find a truckload of 38" paper so we can do the New Testaments as well.

Our new print shop is now in the waiting stage. Plans have been submitted to an engineer, and then permits must be obtained before anything can get started on the ground. Pray that all that goes as smoothly as possible.

Miza Oliveira is in Brazil at this time searching for property on which to put his new print shop and home. He will also be taking a trip up into the Amazon region with some other missionaries while he is there. Miza is willing to build a building for his print shop, but I am praying that he will find a suitable one already built that he can purchase so that he can get started printing faster. He already has a 40' container loaded with mostly printing equipment. His wife is begging for a little space for some household items as well. When he comes back to the States, he will be hitting the road full-time raising money for the printing ministry in Brazil.

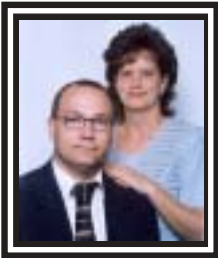

Please pray for all the printing ministries you may know of. There is a tremendous need around the world for all kinds of good material. I have been at it, one way or another since 1985, and I am still learning new and better ways to get things done. Thank God for that!

May God bless you,

Bro. Albert Berg

(Psalm 95 : 3)

Praise the Lord for those who have called on the Lord to be saved in Mexico since our last letter.

Recently Mark, one of our pilots, and I got into a taxi in Caborca, Sonora, Mexico after a prison service. We were on our way back to the airport to come back to Arizona. The taxi had only one head light and the front end looked real bad. I thought the taxi looked very new but was so beat up it must be at least ten years old or more. It even looked lower on one side. We were only going about eight miles. When we got in the cab I asked what year was the cab. The driver said it was a 2003 Nissan. We had to stop at several stop signs. No problem who got to the stop sign first. We always got away first. I looked on the back seat at Mark, the pilot. He just sat back very relaxed and comfortable. When we arrived at the airport I was a nervous wreck. A prison riot wouldn't be near as bad as our taxi ride. Mark said our ride wasn't so bad. He rode in a taxi in Mexico City all the way across town doing eighty miles an hour. Now I call for taxi number 83 with Ramon, the driver.

Blessings & Benefits

by

Mrs. Pam Leake

Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah. (Ps. 68:19)

The twinkling stars dotted the beautiful evening sky as children ran and played in the open area of the Mexican village we were visiting. Some little ones shyly peeked out from behind open doors as our group went door to door passing out gospel literature and extending invitations to the church service to be held later that evening. Those who answered our calls and knocks at their homes gladly received the literature, especially the children, who were given a gospel coloring book and some candy.

The calm and beautiful night sky, the happy shouts of children playing and the smell of wood fires where supper was prepared betrayed the abject poverty of those living in this settlement which once was a pig farm. Dwellings constructed of wooden pallets, odd pieces of scrap lumber and tin, with dirt floors were the homes of people with nowhere else to live. They had become squatters on this forsaken hilltop outside the city. It was our privilege to be among them, to be able to bring them the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ on the printed page, in their own language. They received it gladly and with gratitude. How humbling it was to us, who, in comparison to their poverty, were wealthy beyond measure. Would we be so glad and willing to receive the gospel?

The Lord is so gracious to allow us to have a part in the ministry of providing gospel literature to those who have not heard the good news of Jesus Christ and His gift of salvation. May we never take for granted this opportunity of serving the Master.

THE GLORIOUS GOSPEL OF CHRIST WILL MAKE A DIFFERENCE

We face a problem that will never be completely solved. World-wide evangelism will never be a reality. The majority of people in this world will reject Jesus Christ and perish without hope, but that does not lessen our responsibility to preach the glorious gospel to every creature on planet Earth. A person who doesn't support missions is like a person in a lifeboat looking at a shipwreck and every person on board being swallowed up by the angry waves of the sea and refusing to throw out a life-line because he cannot save all of them.

A little boy was on the beach when the tide washed thousands and thousands of little shell fish upon the dry sand. He began picking up the shell fish and throwing them back into the water as fast as he could. A grown man walked up and said, "Son, there are too many fish for you to throw back. You won't be able to make a difference." The little boy paused for a moment, and then he picked up another fish and threw it back into the water and said, "It made a difference in that one."

The Name Above Every Name, by Tim Felleure. No man ever lived who was called by so many names as Christ. The Muslim has exhausted his knowledge of Allah when he learns the 99 names of his god in the Koran, but the more than 700 titles given to Christ in the Scriptures are only a portion of the names worthy of our Savior. It is impossible to know every name or to comprehend the full treasure of truth contained in each. It is the aim of this 30-day

Jairus And His Daughter

Luke 8:41-56

I have preached a number of times from the story of Jairus and his daughter, but always with the miracle as my topic. His story, along with the case of the woman with the issue of blood, is good preaching material if you want to brag on what Jesus can do in a family's life. However, this week I read the story again with Jairus himself in mind. As I contemplated him I was impressed with three specific attitudes of Jairus.

1) His Concern For His Child!

The scriptures tell us that Jairus was the ruler of the synagogue. This implies that he was a very important person and surely quite busy. He would be the administrator or overseer of the local synagogue where he lived. He managed the business affairs and was responsible for conducting the services, and would have been one of the most respected men in the community. But it is not the synagogue that he is concerned about. He has forgotten all about his duties as a ruler and has nothing but the health of his daughter in mind. He is an important and busy man who is not too important and busy to be a dad. His daughter is sick and nothing is more important to him just now than getting help for his only child. That impresses me!

God give us men who will carry a burden for their children. And in all your concerns, be more concerned about their spiritual well-being than anything else. I would rather my sons and daughter love God and serve Him more than anything I could wish for. The #1 desire of my life is to see my children walk in truth.

Some fathers dream of their kid becoming a professional ball-player. Others dream of their kid becoming a multi-millionaire and president of some fine corporation. Others even dream of their kid rising in politics to possibly even becoming the President of the United States. The dream I have for my kids is that they love God with all their heart.

What our homes need are some mommas who know how to weep and beg heaven for her children. What our homes need are some fathers who know how to fast and pray and grab the horns of the altar until God blesses our children. What our homes need is a church that keeps a hot pulpit and the altars wet with tears on behalf of our children.

2) His Confidence In Christ!

Jairus got news that Jesus was passing through his town and he determined that he would not let Him pass without a healing touch for his daughter. The fame of Jesus had spread and Jairus knew the stories of all the miracles people were claiming He had done. Jairus seemed to believe that all he needed to do was get Jesus to his house and his daughter would be helped. He had complete trust that Christ was all she needed.

But you need to remember that Jairus was a ruler of the synagogue which means he was one of the chief religious men of that region. And we know that the religious elders of that day had no use for Jesus. As a religious ruler, Jairus would have considered Jesus a heretic and blasphemer. But someone had convinced him that Jesus could heal his daughter. And he was willing to abandon his religious prejudices, endure the scorn of his colleagues, and humble himself before the Lord to get Christ to his daughter.

I too have confidence that if you can get your children to God, they will be alright. Our children are going to face pressures we know nothing about and they need a close relationship with their Savior. Just get your children to Jesus!

3) His Commitment to The Cure!

If you read through the story too fast you will miss the fact that Jairus faced great obstacles on his way to Jesus. It would have been easy to get discouraged and even have quit, but he would not stop until his daughter was made whole.

The first obstacle Jairus ran into was a woman. Jairus had reached Jesus and was leading him to his home when Jesus was stopped by a woman touching him. Now Jairus surely would not resent Jesus healing this woman, but time is critical. This woman will make it another day if her disease is not life threatening. But Jairus' daughter is sick unto death.

Then while Jairus is forced to wait while Jesus deals with this woman, a servant from his house comes with the terrible news that his daughter has just passed away. While a woman bothers Jesus, his daughter dies. Now it is no use for Jesus to come to his house. It is too late to help now! But Jesus insists on going anyway. And when he gets there he prompts laughter from those in the house when he declares the daughter is only sleeping. And though they would not laugh at Jairus in his grief, he bears the reproach of having Jesus in his home.

Jairus would see a great miracle in his home that day but not without facing some great obstacles. He had to face the delay of Christ, the doubts of his own mind when they told him his daughter had died, and the derision of those in his home at the idea that she was not dead.

And you too can expect great opposition as well to your home. It will take a great commitment to the cause to succeed in raising kids for God. But seeing your children serve God will be worth every trial you must face. Getting your children to Jesus will be worth any sacrifice you must make. Just ask Jairus!
